

Meditation on God's Attributes

Answer the question, then read each Scripture passage and write down what you learn.

Sovereign

God is sovereign, fully in control of everything. Because God is sovereign, you can rest. Where do you need to give up control to rest in God's sovereignty? _____

Psalm 103:19, 2 Samuel 7:28, 1 Chronicles 29:10-13 _____

Eternal

God is eternal, not bound by time. Because God is eternal, you can have a new perspective that this moment in time with all its dilemmas is not quite as big as it seems. What situation have you made too big or important in your thinking? _____

Isaiah 44:6, Revelation 1:8, 1 Timothy 1:17 _____

Omniscient

God is omniscient; He possesses all the knowledge there is to have. Nothing ever takes Him by surprise. Let God's omniscience humble you. In what areas do you think you know all the answers? In what ways have you let your agenda be too important? _____

Hebrews 4:13, Job 42:2, Isaiah 40:12-14 _____

Omnipresent

God is omnipresent; infinite and everywhere present through all time and space. Nothing can be hidden from Him. Because God is omnipresent, you need not fear. You can trust in Him and know that He is with you at all times. Have you been worried or anxious? Do you need to trust God that He is with you in the problem? _____

Jeremiah 23:24, Proverbs 15:3, Deuteronomy 31:6, Colossians 1:17 _____

Omnipotent

God is omnipotent, having more than enough strength to create, preserve, and do all things, including save and care for you. God's omnipotence assures you that there is a power to be depended on. You can know that victory is possible and assured as you rely on God's power. What would it look like for you to rely on God's power in your life's circumstances? _____

Philippians 3:20, Psalm 147:5, Ephesians 3:20 _____

Immutable

God is immutable, unchanging in His nature or attributes, and completely faithful to keep His word. God's immutability is hard to fathom in a culture that does not think in absolutes. God is the absolute and unchangeable solid rock, His truth is absolute over every earthly perception. In what way has the postmodern thinking of our world (that teaches personal "truths") impacted you to think that your situation might be different than what God says? _____

Numbers 23:19, Psalm 102:27, Hebrews 13:8 _____
